Library Bulletin.

The first number of volume 2 of the Bulletin of the Vermont Library Commission was issued from the CALEDONIAN office Monday and like its predecessors contains much valuable reading for librarians. The Bulletin contains a full report of the recent Brattleboro meeting, notes of the new libraries, gifts to the commission, etc. In the latter category is the announcement of the gift of 44 volumes from Mrs. J. L. Perkins of St. Johnsbury, including Ellis' History of our country in eight volumes.

Cosgrove-Caldbeck.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season took place at St. Aloysius church, Tuesday morning at nine o'clock, when Miss Maude E., third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew J. Caldbeck, was united in marriage to James Cosgrove of Providence, R. I. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father T. J. Leonard, and to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Lillian Ryan, the groom with his brother, John Cosgrove of New York, as best man, entered the side door and proceeded to the altar. The ushers led the bridal procession, and the bridesmaid, Miss Gertrude Caldbeck, gown in white embroidered mull over light blue silk, and carrying American Beauty roses, preceded the bride. Following, came the little flower girl, Miss Marie Rann, gown in white, carrying a bouquet of lilies of the valley, which she presented to the bride after the ceremony. The bride came next, leaning on the arm of her father, and carrying a white prayer-book. She wore an exquisite gown of silk Battenburg over chiffon and satin. She also wore a beautiful embroidered Irish linen bertha with handkerchief to match. Her veil was fastened with a wreath of lilies of the valley. The church was tastefully decorated with assorted flowers and ferns, and during a part of the high mass wedding service, "Schubert's Serenade" was rendered on the violin by Miss Elizabeth Peck and a vocal solo, "Ave Maria," was given by Miss Helena Brown. The ushers included John Flanagan of Boston, L. P. McGovern, Lynn, Mass., Dr. J. T. Walsh, and George Caldbeck, brother of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party and about 40 of the immediate relatives and friends assembled at the Avenue House, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The wedding gifts were many and beautiful, showing the esteem in which the young couple are held. The display included cut glass, sterling silver, a beautiful French clock with silver trimmings from Lever Bros. Co., for whom Mr. Cosgrove travels, a table cloth and dozen napkins of Mexican drawn-work, candlesticks, bon bon dishes, a set of Haviland china, dollies, centerpieces and a large display of linen in Mexican drawn-work.

Mrs. Cosgrove has been bookkeeper for her father since graduating from the St. Johnsbury Academy, soprano soloist of St. Aloysius church, soprano in the Marcian Quartet, and a very popular young lady in social functions. Mr. Cosgrove is salesman for the firm of Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass., and has made many friends in this place. The best wishes of their many St. Johnsbury friends go with the young couple to their home in Providence, R. I.

Among the guests from out of town to attend the wedding were Miss Margaret Cosgrove, Miss Patricia Scanlon and Patrick Curran of Providence, R. I.; Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Clancy, Manchester, N. H.; J. D. Kennedy, Sherbrooke, P. Q.; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Flanagan, Richford; John Hicks, Wakefield, Mass.; Hubert Darling, St. Albans; Miss Jean Duncan, Melndoes.

Recital at Grace Methodist Church.

The Wagner recital will commence tomorrow evening at eight o'clock. In spite of the fact that Wagner is the most wonderful composer that has ever lived, and that the Bayreuth Festivals draw their audiences from every corner of the earth, Wagner is little known in this town, and Prof. Krumpel has been unable to get any assistance in this recital, with the exception of Mrs. Harry Cross, who (if she is home in time) will sing Elizabeth's Prayer from Tannhauser. An earnest appeal is made to the musical public of St. Johnsbury. The program is as follows:
Overture to Lohengrin.
Vocal solo, Wolfram's Romance, from Tannhauser.
March from Tannhauser.
Prelude, from The Meister-singer.
Vocal solo, Liebeslied, from the Valkyrie.
Bridal Chorus, from Lohengrin.
Overture to Tannhauser.
A collection will be taken.

At the Academy.

The subscription raised by the students for the San Francisco Relief Fund has been heard from. Fifty dollars was subscribed by the Academy classes and forwarded to San Francisco, with the request that the sum be applied to the reconstruction of school buildings. The following has very recently been received by Mr. Constock:

School Reconstruction Committee of the San Francisco School Department, San Francisco, Cal., Principal St. Johnsbury Academy, St. Johnsbury, Vt.

My DEAR SIR: I am in receipt of a check for fifty ($50) dollars, received through the Finance Committee of the Relief and Red Cross Fund of San Francisco. I beg to thank you very sincerely for this generous contribution. This money will all be applied to the rebuilding of the burnt and damaged San Francisco schools. Very truly yours,

ALFRED RONZOVIER, Supt. of Schools.

County Court.

The grand jury reported Thursday after a week and a half of deliberation. During this time they considered 13 cases, some of which required the examination of many witnesses. Out of this number only three true bills were found. In addition to the discussion of the cases the grand jury passed half a day at the county jail. They reported the institution as well and neatly kept in every respect, but recommended that a new jail be built nearer the court house, and that it be made with better ventilation than the old one. The finding of so few true bills by the grand jury makes it apparent that there will be but little criminal work this term.

The evidence in the Mathewson case, which has occupied several days, was closed yesterday, and the arguments begun yesterday afternoon.

The case of State vs. Mrs. Guiseppe Poli in which she pleaded guilty of one offense of selling liquor, and which was entered at the December term, was continued for sentence.

A nole pros has been entered in the well known conspiracy case of State vs. James Duncan et al, in which an indictment was brought at the December term.

In the local case in which James Cassidy was arrested for furnishing liquor, bail was fixed at $400 and furnished by T. D. Pidgeon.

In the case of David Cunningham, arrested for larceny, arraigned June 18, he pleaded not guilty, and G. C. Frye was assigned as counsel.

Louis Tashiro who was arrested and in jail for larceny, pleaded guilty, and was placed under the care of the probation officer.

A nole pros was entered in the case of State vs. Frank Goodno and Mabel Willey, who have been in jail since last fall on charge of adultery. James and Emma Sylve, who have been in jail nearly all winter were released on their own recognizance, and a nole pros was entered.

One of the most important cases of the term is that of State vs. Isham of Morrisville, on the charge of furnishing liquor C. O. D. from Morrisville to other towns. Bail was fixed at $2000. Secretary of State Frederick G. Fleetwood appears as counsel for the respondent.

Two divorce cases have been heard. Clinton Gray vs. Zina Gray, in which a divorce was granted for adultery. Attorney Simonds; Bert Brock vs. Flora Brock, heard Monday morning. No decision.

In the case of J. Negretti, liquor, who pleaded guilty in December, the case is again continued for sentence.

Albert Smith, pleaded guilty of larceny, and was placed in the care of the probation officer.

School Notes.

All the primary and rural schools closed for the summer, Friday. The upper grades close this week with the graduation exercises of the ninth grade pupils in Music Hall. The exercises will be given Friday afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock. The public is most cordially invited to attend. No tickets will be required, and no seats, except a section for pupils taking part in the exercises, and for parents of the graduates will be reserved. The program will be as follows:

Assisted by quartet.

The display of art work by the pupils of the graded schools, including the rural is displayed in Mrs. Beck's room and contains one of the finest displays ever given here. The work covers mat-weaving, tile matting, stencil work, nature and picture study and many others too numerous to mention. The pupils have done especially well this year and the work reflects much praise on their teacher, Miss Edith M. Nichols, who has made the work the success that it is. This display will continue until Friday evening. All teachers and friends of the children are invited to come in and inspect the work any time during the week. Thursday the room will be open until six to accommodate the fathers in the shops.

Mrs. Lydia Beck was the recipient of $5.00 in gold from the pupils of the first and second grades, at the close of the term last week.
